And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you; and my people shall never be ashamed. And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the Lord your God, and none else."

Opening Day At Leech Flower Shop a Success

Hundreds of Visitors Call At Newest Business House On Saturday

"Harriett Leech, Flowers," the newest business enterprise in Torrance, opened Saturday afternoon, November 30, in beautiful quarters at 1413 Marcelina avenue. Nearly 1,000 visitors, who came to look at the artistic arrangements, beautiful floral display, and congratulate the owner, Mrs. Harriett Leech, streamed through the show-rooms during the afternoon and evening. Mrs. Frank H. Steinhilber and Mrs. Roxie Sleeth assisted Mrs. Leech in receiving, and served tea to hundreds of callers.

Mrs. Leech's place of business, in the remodeled rooms formerly occupied by the post office, is modernly attractive. The color scheme of black floor, white window trim and white leather furniture, is set off by the handsome window drapes in pale green. Novelty vases and bric-a-brac add an effective note to the general effect.

Mrs. Leech has been in intensive training for her line of work for a number of weeks, and is assisted by Annette Garvey, who has had a number of years of experience in high-class metropolitan florist shop work.

While Mrs. Leech did not expect to do any business on Saturday, devoting the afternoon and evening merely to display of her shop and stock, many of those who came to look ended by purchasing bouquets, so that her first day's business proved to be very successful.

Paschal had been staying in Long Beach and left there Friday afternoon to go to Walteria.

He rode as far as Wilmington with B. H. Hale, a salesman of Long Beach, who let Paschal out of his machine on O street about 5:15 p. m. His body was found a short time later, and he was taken to the Wilmington hospital where he died of skull fracture and internal injuries. He was not identified until Sunday when Mrs. Flint and her son Frank viewed the body.

The remains were sent to Salt Lake City for burial.
